Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 24, 2016

Nehemiah 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10; 1 Cor 12:12-30 [12-14,27];
Lk 1:1-4; 4:14-21
Psalms 19

Dear Families:

In this Sunday's gospel, we hear Jesus saying firmly: "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." Of what prophecies does Jesus speak? of the prophet Isaiah: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord."

With this solemn announcement Jesus presented himself in Nazareth. He is the awaited Savior - He who brings "a year acceptable to the Lord," that is, the full forgiveness and reconciliation with God. It is the end of humanity being isolated from God and the beginning of a new humanity, reconciled in Christ. This is why Jesus came. Our mission is not only to listen to this message, but to convey that Jesus' announcement is being fulfilled. God wants a world reconciled with Him and at peace with one another; a free world; respectful, free nations, without wars, without dictators, guerrillas, drugs, or terrorism; a world in which children are open to life and growth, like flowers in spring, full of colors and beautiful visions, without fear and pain; a world of brothers and sisters. We must bear witness to all this that Jesus came to leave us: He is merciful. Let us come to Him for His "mercy."

We live in difficult times. This great economic crisis is affecting all levels of society. Migrants are seeking ways to survive each day. They have no recourse, other than to move from one city or state to another. Eventually, thousands of families end up returning to their native countries. Children are suffering. Many teenagers are tempted by drugs, gang violence and terrorism.

We still have to learn to live in difficult times, with the hope that it will soon pass. Jesus teaches us to keep love in the home; to keep solidarity with those most in need; to remain in confident prayer; and, every day, to turn our gaze to God, never forgetting that we cannot do it without Him.

May God show mercy on us. May He enlighten the minds and move the wills of those who have the power and ability to generate peace and prevent war; celebrate life and not death; give hope, and help the people achieve their dreams. This is what Jesus wants. He places this work in our hands; with His help, we are to develop a world that is more humane, more Christian, and more "of God". A world that tries to do without God has no hope.

Peace and good to all.

Father Celestino, Pastor

On Monday, January 25th: the Church celebrates the conversion of St. Paul. Let us offer to God prayers for Christian unity.

Tercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

24 de Enero del 2016

Nehemías 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10; 1 Cor 12:12-30 [12-14, 27];
Lc 1:1-4; 4:14-21
Salmo 19 [18]

Queridas Familias:

En el evangelio que leemos este domingo escuchamos a Jesús que dice con firmeza: "Hoy se cumplen estas profecías que acaban de escuchar"; ¿de qué profecías habla Jesús? de las del profeta Isaías: "El Espíritu del Señor está sobre mí, por el que me consagró. Me envió a traer la Buena Nueva a los pobres, a anunciar a los cautivos la libertad y a los ciegos la vista, para dar la libertad a los oprimidos y proclamar un año de gracia del Señor".

Así fue como Jesús se presentó en Nazaret e hizo este solemne anuncio. El es el Salvador esperado. El que nos trae "un año de gracia del Señor," es decir, el perdón y la reconciliación total con Dios. Termina la situación de la humanidad aislada de Dios y comienza una nueva humanidad reconciliada en Cristo. Para esto ha venido Jesús. A nosotros nos toca la misión no solo de escuchar este mensaje sino de transmitir que ya se cumple lo que Jesús anunció. Dios quiere un mundo reconciliado con El y en paz unos con otros; un mundo libre, de respeto, naciones libres, sin guerras, sin dictadores, sin guerrillas, sin narcotráfico, sin terrorismo; un mundo en el que los niños se abran a la vida, a su crecimiento, como las flores en primavera, llenos de colores e ilusiones sin miedos y sin dolor. Un mundo de hermanos. Debemos ser testigos de esto que Jesús vino a dejarnos: Es misericordioso. Acerquémonos a El buscando su "misericordia".

Nos toca vivir tiempos difíciles. A todos los niveles sociales está afectando esta gran crisis económica. Los emigrantes buscan la manera de subsistir cada día. Cambian de ciudad, de Estado y finalmente miles de familias están regresando a sus países de origen. Los niños están sufriendo; muchos adolescentes son tentados por las drogas y las fantasías de violencia de las pandillas y el terrorismo.

Nos queda aprender a vivir en tiempos difíciles con la esperanza de que pasen pronto. Jesús nos enseña a mantener el amor en el hogar, la solidaridad con los que más lo necesitan y la oración confiada de cada día para que volvamos la mirada a Dios, de quien pretendíamos prescindir.

Que Dios se muestre misericordioso con nosotros, que ilumine las mentes y mueva las voluntades de los que tienen el poder y la capacidad de generar paz y no guerra, vida y no muerte, ilusión, esperanza y sueños realizables.

Esto es lo que quiere Jesús: está en nuestras manos trabajar con la ayuda de El para que haya un mundo más humano, más cristiano, más de Dios. El mundo de los que prescindieron de Dios no tiene esperanza.

Paz y bien para todos los de su casa.

Padre Celestino, Párroco

Mañana lunes 25: La Iglesia celebra la conversión de San Pablo Apóstol. Ofrezcamos a Dios oración por la unidad de los cristianos.

Reflections of Pope Francis

"The Gospel calls us to be close to the poor and forgotten, and to give them real hope."

"When the world slumbers in comfort and self-ishness, our Christian mission is to help it rouse from sleep."

Reflexiones del Papa Francisco

"El Evangelio nos llama a estar cerca de los pobres y olvidados, y a darles una esperanza real."

"Cuando el mundo duerme en la comodidad y el egoísmo, nuestra misión cristiana es la de ayudar a que despierte de ese sueño."

MASS & ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Mass will be celebrated by our Pastor, Fr. Celestino, the last Saturday of the Month, January 30th, at 7:30 a.m., followed by the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick.

Pope Francis said during a recent public audience: "The compassion of God towards human suffering is found in the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick." Receiving this sacrament must serve to help the faithful broaden their "view of the experience of illness and suffering, in the horizon of God's mercy."

Remember Our Faithful Departed

Into your hands, O Lord, we commend the souls of our recently departed. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Amén

Recuerden a Nuestros Difuntos

En tus manos, encomendamos a los que han fallecido recientemente. Que sus almas y las almas de los fieles difuntos, por la misericordia de Dios, descansen en paz.

Amén

January 24th

Hundreds participated in the annual Prayer Walk recently in Sarasota. But babies die from abortion throughout the year. Join us in prayer for unborn babies, in front of Sarasota Planned Parenthood any Friday, for any length of time, between 10am and noon. It's on Central Avenue between 7th and 8th streets (five blocks north of Fruitville, west of Orange).

More than 125 babies have been saved from abortion by prayer and sidewalk counseling there. If you can't be there, pray for the babies wherever you are.

If you have any questions, write

THE JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY – QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

What is the Jubilee Year of Mercy?

On March 13, 2015, Pope Francis announced an Extraordinary Holy Year, to be called a "Jubilee of Mercy." Holy Years have a long tradition, dating back to Old Testament times, when every seven years was a Sabbath Year:

The Lord said to Moses on Mount Sinai, "Say to the people of Israel, When you come into the land which I give you, the land shall keep a sabbath to the Lord. Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard, and gather in its fruits; but in the seventh year there shall be a sabbath of solemn rest for the land, a sabbath to the Lord; you shall not sow your field or prune your vineyard. (Leviticus 25:1-4)

A Jubilee Year was even more momentous, occurring every 50 years, during which people returned to their land, debts were forgiven, and slaves set free:

A jubilee shall that fiftieth year be to you; in it you shall neither sow, nor reap what grows of itself, nor gather the grapes from the undressed vines. For it is a jubilee; it shall be holy to you; you shall eat what it yields out of the field. (Leviticus 25:11-12)

This tradition of Jubilee Years continued in the Catholic Church, and most recently, Pope St. John Paul II declared the year 2000 as a Jubilee Year. It is in this tradition that Pope Francis has called for a Jubilee Year, with the theme of Mercy.

A Message from St. Jude Finance Committee

Your parish needs your help! We need to increase our offertory collections by 20% in order to meet our operating expenses. How can YOU help? Please consider increasing your weekly donation by 20%. For example: from $5 to $6, from $10 to $12, from $20 to $24, from $40 to $48, etc.

On average, we need $12,375 in weekly offertory collections to meet our expenses; the offertory collection for the week-end of January 16 & 17 was $13,578.00.

Did you know that every Friday the Knights of Columbus distribute over 35 bags of food to the needy? St. Jude spends over $40,000 every year helping the poor, as Jesus asked us to do.

Thank you in advance for your help and God bless you!

Un mensaje del Comité de Finanzas de San Judas

¡Su parroquia necesita su ayuda! Tenemos que aumentar nuestras colectas de ofertorio en un 20% con el fin de cumplir con nuestros gastos de operación. ¿Como puede USTED ayudar? Por favor considere aumentar su donación semanal en un 20%. Por ejemplo: de $5 a $6, de $10 a $12, de $20 a $24, de $40 a $48, etc.

En promedio, necesitamos $12,375 en la colecta de ofertorio semanal para cubrir nuestros gastos; la colecta de ofertorio del fin de semana del 16 y 17 de enero fue de $13,578.00.

¿Sabía usted que todos los viernes los Caballeros de Colón distribuyen más de 35 bolsas de comida a los necesitados? San Judas gasta más de $40,000 cada año para ayudar a los pobres, como Jesús nos pidió que hiciéramos.

¡Gracias de antemano por su ayuda y que Dios los bendiga!
