Second Sunday of Lent

February 21, 2016

Genesis 15:5-12, 17-18; Philippians 3:17-4:1; Luke 9:28b-36
Psalm 27

Dear Families:

The first week of Lent presented us with Jesus struggling against the tempter, the devil. On this second week, the outlook changes as we see Jesus transfigured before Peter, John and James. In this account, God the Father shows these three disciples the truth about Jesus' identity: the glory of the future resurrection.

The disciples wanted to keep and remain in that moment of glory, but Jesus makes them see that they had to return to the daily life with its struggles and work, with its joys and sorrows, and the mission of proclaiming peace, justice and the love of God. We will have to struggle in this life, but in the end we will have the victory, promised by Jesus.

So Lent draws our attention to follow Jesus who dedicated his life to the service of others. He showed compassion for the poor; ate with sinners; restored health to the sick; and comforted the sad. Close by us, today, are the sick and the elderly, the poor and the needy, and the children and young people who need our help. Jesus, with His suffering and death on the cross, identifies with our sufferings and with our own death. We are called to join with Jesus, and to identify with Him and with His death; to unite, as His people. Thereby, will we create, in us, the eternity of a glorious resurrection. This is our hope of salvation.

Let us make the journey of Lent in a spirit of reconciliation with God, with others, and with ourselves. With the true freedom obtained by following Christ, let us mature as free men and women. To Discover who we really are and what God wants from us, is a process that lasts a lifetime. The journey of Abraham and Sarah to the Promised Land is a good symbol of our own pilgrimage. Trusting in the promises of God, we walk toward Him, aware of the difficulties we will find during the trip. We may veer off the path because of sin with its many masks, tempting us to seek happiness elsewhere. However, God's invitation to return to Him is always open; an invitation to be who we are, children of God, and to act accordingly. He is merciful.

Reflections of Pope Francis

"Jesus is waiting for us and wants to heal our hearts of all that tears us down. He is the God who has a name: Mercy."

"May the Lord help us overcome the temptations of wealth, vanity and pride which seek to destroy the truth of the Gospel."

Segundo Domingo de Cuaresma

21 de Febrero del 2016

Génesis 15:5-12, 17-18; Filipenses 3:17-4:1; Lucas 9:28b-36
Salmo 27 [26]

Queridas Familias:

La primera semana de la Cuaresma nos presentaba a Jesús luchando contra el tentador, el diablo. En esta segunda semana cambia el panorama y vemos a Jesús transfigurado delante de Pedro, Juan y Santiago. En este episodio Dios Padre muestra a estos tres discípulos la verdad sobre la identidad de Jesús: la gloria de la resurrección futura.

Los Discípulos quisieron quedarse con aquel momento de esplendor, pero Jesús les hace ver que hay que volver a esta vida diaria con sus luchas y trabajos, con sus penas y alegrías; y a la misión de anunciar la paz, la justicia y el amor de Dios. Tendremos que luchar en esta vida, pero al final tendremos el triunfo prometido por Jesús.

Así es que la Cuaresma nos llama la atención para que sigamos a Jesús que dedicó su vida al servicio de los demás: se compadece de los pobres, come con los pecadores, da salud a los enfermos, consuela a los tristes... Junto a nosotros tenemos enfermos y ancianos, pobres y necesitados, niños y jóvenes a los que ayudar, Jesús con sus sufrimientos y su muerte en la cruz se identifica con los nuestros y con nuestra propia muerte. Unidos a los suyos y a su muerte creamos en nosotros la eternidad de una resurrección gloriosa. Estamos llamados a unirnos a Jesús y a identificarnos con Él. Esta es nuestra esperanza de gloria.

Hagamos el cambio de la Cuaresma con espíritu de reconciliación con Dios, con los demás y con nosotros mismos. Maduremos como hombres y mujeres libres, con la verdadera libertad que nos da el seguimiento de Cristo. Descubrir quienes somos verdaderamente y qué es lo que quiere Dios de nosotros, es un proceso que dura toda la vida. El viaje de Abrahán y Sara hacia la Tierra Prometida es un buen símbolo de nuestro propio peregrinaje. Confiando en las promesas de Dios, caminamos hacia Él, conscientes de las dificultades que encontraremos durante el viaje. Es posible que nos salgamos del camino porque el pecado, con sus muchas máscaras, nos tentará a buscar la felicidad en algún otro sitio. Sin embargo, la invitación de Dios de regresar a Él está siempre abierta; una invitación a ser quienes somos, hijos e hijas de Dios, y a actuar como nos corresponde. Él es misericordioso.

Reflexiones del Papa Francisco

"Jesús está esperando por nosotros y quiere sanar nuestros corazones de todo lo que nos derriba. Él es el Dios que tiene un nombre: Misericordia."

"Que el Señor nos ayude a superar las tentaciones de la riqueza, la vanidad y el orgullo, que buscan destruir la verdad del Evangelio."

When attending Mass, please be mindful...the priest should be the last person to enter the Church... and the first one to leave.

Cuando asista a Misa, por favor recuerde...el sacerdote es la última persona que entra a la Iglesia...y el primero en salir.

Message from page 3...

It is Jesus, the Son of God, who teaches us what it means to be God's sons and daughters. Throughout His life, Jesus discovered what God was calling Him to do. At the top of the mountain, Peter, John and James were witnesses, in a special way, of who Jesus was. But just as Jesus reminded the three apostles, He had to live out His mission, not above from the world...but in it. That was His challenge, and so it is ours.

May God bless you,

Father Celestino, Pastor

Mensaje de la página 3...

Es Jesús, el mismo Hijo de Dios, quien nos enseña lo que significa ser hijo e hija de Dios. A lo largo de su vida Jesús descubrió qué era a lo que Dios lo estaba llamando. En la cima de la montaña, Pedro, Juan y Santiago fueron testigos, de una manera especial, de quien era Jesús. Pero al igual que Jesús recordó a los tres apóstoles, él tenía que vivir su misión no alejado del mundo, sino en él. Ese era su reto, y es el nuestro.

Que Dios los bendiga.

Padre Celestino, Párroco

Remember Our Faithful Departed

Into your hands, O Lord, we commend the souls of our recently departed. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amén

Recuerden a Nuestros Difuntos

En tus manos, encomendamos a los que han fallecido recientemente. Que sus almas y las almas de los fieles difuntos, por la misericordia de Dios, descansen en paz. Amén

MASS & ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Mass will be celebrated by our Pastor, Fr. Celestino, the last Saturday of the Month, February 27th, at 7:30 a.m., followed by the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick.

Pope Francis said during a recent public audience: "The compassion of God towards human suffering is found in the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick." Receiving this sacrament must serve to help the faithful broaden their "view of the experience of illness and suffering, in the horizon of God's mercy."

February 21

Father, we thank you for this Lenten season of grace and light. We know that sin has blinded us. Draw us ever closer to you, in prayer and penance. Since you, O God, are light itself, give all your people a clearer understanding of what is sin and what is virtue. Grant in particular that we may see, as never before, the profound dignity of every human life.

21 de Febrero

Padre, te damos gracias por este tiempo de Cuaresma y de gracia y luz. Sabemos que el pecado nos ha cegado. Acércanos cada vez más a ti, en la oración y la penitencia. Ya que tÚ OH Dios, eres la luz misma, da a toda tu gente una más clara comprensión de lo que es el pecado y lo que es la virtud. Permite en particular, que veamos, como nunca antes, la profunda dignidad de cada vida humana.
