THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

February 28, 2016

Exodus 3:1-8a, 13-15; 1 Cor 10:1-6, 10-12; Luke 13:1-9
Psalm 103

Dear Families:

God is very patient.

Today's reading tells us of God's patience, and calls to action, to bear fruit. In the parable of the fig tree, we learn of a man who is willing to give one more chance, to wait another year for the fig tree to bear fruit. This is in contrast to the normal way of the people, and especially in our world. Technology has gotten us used to obtaining almost instant results, and sometimes we expect the same from people with whom we live. We want everything now. It is difficult to give one more chance to our children, our spouse, when they have disappointed us. And sometimes, those feelings are also directed toward ourselves. It is hard not to lose patience when things do not go as we would have liked, or when we fail to do something. And then it is also easy to find an excuse not to continue our efforts.

The Word of God challenges us today to two hard things: on one hand, to be patient with one another; on the other hand, to bear fruit. To not sin is not only to refrain from evil actions, rather, our relationship with God invites us to go further. We are expected to bear "good fruits" of service, both to the people most immediate in our lives, and to the communities within which we exist.

This is the call of Lent: to experience God's forgiveness, mercy and patience and to offer patience, forgiveness and mercy to others. It is time to exercise kindness, to give our spouses, and children, as well as those who offended us and are not like us, another chance. Sin manifests both as acts of commission (doing wrong), and acts of omission (not doing something good and necessary)...that is, not "bearing fruit".

-Have I lost patience with others this week?

-What demonstrations of patience have I received and/or given?

May God bless you.

Father Celestino, Pastor

TERCER DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

28 de Febrero del 2016

Exodo 3:1-8a, 13-15; 1 Cor 10:1-6; 10-12; Lucas 13:1-9
Salmo 103[102]

Queridas Familias:

Dios tiene mucha paciencia.

La lectura de hoy nos habla de la paciencia de Dios, y de las llamadas a la acción, a dar fruto. En la Parábola de la higuera, vemos a un señor que está dispuesto a dar una oportunidad más, a esperar un año más a que la higuera dé fruto. Esto está en contraste con la manera normal de la gente, y sobre todo en nuestro mundo. La tecnología nos ha acostumbrado a resultados casi instantáneos. Traspasamos a veces esas maneras de actuar a las personas con quienes convivimos. Queremos que hagan las cosas y las hagan ya. Es difícil dar una oportunidad más a nuestros hijos, a nuestro cónyuge, cuando nos han decepcionado. Y a veces también se dirigen esos sentimientos a uno mismo. Es difícil no perder la paciencia cuando no salen las cosas como las hubiéramos imaginado, cuando no conseguimos hacer algo. Y entonces, también es difícil buscar una excusa y no hacer más esfuerzos.

La Palabra de Dios hoy nos desafía a dos cosas difíciles: por un lado, a la paciencia de uno con otros. Por otro, a dar fruto. No pecar no consiste solamente en no hacer mal. La relación con Dios nos invita a ir más allá: a dar buenos frutos de servicio a personas y comunidades con las que convivimos.

Esta es la llamada de esta Cuaresma: experimentar el perdón, la misericordia y la paciencia de Dios y ofrecer paciencia, perdón y misericordia a los demás. Es tiempo de ejercer la bondad, de dar otra oportunidad al cónyuge, a los hijos, a quien ofendí, a quien no es como nosotros. Pecar no es solamente hacer el mal, sino no hacer algo bueno y necesario, no dar fruto.

-¿He perdido la paciencia con otros en esta semana?

-¿Qué muestras de paciencia he recibido o he dado?

Que Dios los bendiga.

Padre Celestino, Párroco

Reflections of Pope Francis

"Do not forget that the mercy of God is our shield and strength against injustice, destruction and oppression."

"Let us be renewed by God's mercy....and let us become agents of this mercy, channels through which God can water the earth, protect all creation and make justice and peace flourish."

Reflexiones del Papa Francisco

"No hay que olvidar que la misericordia de Dios es nuestro escudo y la fuerza contra la injusticia, la destrucción y la opresión."

"Vamos a ser renovados por la misericordia de Dios... y vamos a convertirnos en agentes de esta misericordia, canales a través del cual Dios puede regar la tierra, proteger a toda la creación y hacer florecer la justicia y la paz." 3

When attending Mass, please be mindful the priest should be the last person to enter the Church and the first one to leave.

Cuando asista a Misa, por favor recuerde...el sacerdote es la última persona que entra a la Iglesia...y el primero en salir.

February 28

As we conclude this Black History Month, let us recall that Martin Luther King Jr.'s legacy lives on in his niece, Alveda King. She tours the U.S. telling how abortion has hurt the black community. She said abortion does injustice to her uncle's dream: "The most pressing civil rights issue ... is the protection of the lives of the pre-born. ... If the dream of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. is to live, our babies must live."

28 de Febrero

Al concluir este Mes de la Historia Negra, recordemos que el legado de Martin Luther King Jr. vive en su sobrina, Alveda King. Ella gira por los EE.UU. diciendo cómo el aborto ha hecho dañar a la comunidad negra. Ella dijo que el aborto no hace justicia al sueño de su tío: "El asunto más urgente de derechos civiles ... es la protección de la vida del pre-nacido. ... Si el sueño del Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. es vivir, nuestros bebés tienen que vivir."
