FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

March 13, 2016

Isaiah 43:16-21; Philippians 3:8-14; John 8:1-11
Psalm 126

Dear Families:

For centuries, Lent was a time dedicated to the immediate preparation of adult catechumens, preparing to be baptized in the solemn Easter Vigil.

A good part of that preparation was made on Sundays, in the presence of the community of the baptized; thus serving to remind the community of the commitment they made, the day they joined the Church. At the same time, the urgency of conversion to a new life, which was taught to the catechumens, invited the already baptized to revisit their behavior. If this reflection was necessary, then, it is especially important for us, today.

On the day of our baptism, God realized, in each of us, the miracle of the purifying waters of this sacrament, reminiscent of today's first Reading. The Bible passage from Isaiah reminds us that God's saving gesture far exceeds the portent of the passage of the Red Sea, as well as the miracle of the water that flowed from the rock to quench the thirst of the people in the wilderness: "Remember not the events of the past. Consider not, the things of long ago. See that I am doing something new! Now it springs forth! Do you not perceive it?" (Is 43:18).

Baptism alone does not guarantee our salvation; nor was it enough that the Israelites, in order to enter the Promised Land, passed through the Red Sea; eaten the manna; and quenched their thirst with water that flowed from the rock. (1Cor 10:1-11).

To be baptized means to be incorporated into the saving death and resurrection of Christ. This requires us to be proactive in "...sharing in his sufferings...by being conformed to his death, I may attain resurrection from the dead" (Phil. 3:11). To die to sin and to live a new life in God are the continuous demands, for us who were baptized.

The third reading (today's Gospel) warns us against the danger of assuming the position of censor, with respect to others...as if we are so righteous.

Reflections of Pope Francis

"Jesus Christ, with his closeness and tenderness, leads sinners into the place of grace and pardon. This is the mercy of God."

"Open your heart to mercy! Divine mercy is stronger than the sins of men."

QUINTO DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

13 de Marzo del 2016

Isa'as 43:16-21; Filipenses 3:8-14; Juan 8:1-11
Salmo 126

Queridas Familias:

La Cuaresma fue durante siglos un tiempo dedicado a la preparaci3n inmediata de los catec3menes adultos que se dispon'an a recibir el bautismo en la solemne Vigilia Pascual.

Una buena parte de esa preparaci3n se hac'a los domingos en presencia de la comunidad de los bautizados, a los que serv'a como recordatorio del compromiso que adquirieron el d'a de su incorporaci3n a la Iglesia. Con ello, la urgencia de conversi3n a una nueva vida, que se inculcaba a los catec3menes, invitaba a los ya bautizados a revisar sus comportamientos. Si siempre fue necesaria y conveniente esta reflexi3n, de manera especial lo es entre nosotros hoy.

El d'a de nuestro bautismo Dios realiz3 en cada uno de nosotros el milagro de las aguas purificadoras del sacramento, que nos recuerda la primera lectura b'blica de hoy. El pasaje de Isa'as nos trae a la memoria que este gesto salv'fico de Dios supera con mucho el portentoso del paso del mar Rojo y el milagro de las aguas que brotaron de la roca para saciar la sed del pueblo en el desierto: "No recuerden lo de anta-o; no piensen en lo antiguo. Miren que realizo algo nuevo; ya est3 brotando, 3no lo notan?" (Is 43:18).

Pero el Bautismo por s' solo no garantiza nuestra salvaci3n, como tampoco bast3 a los israelitas para entrar en la tierra prometida haber pasado el mar Rojo, haber comido el man3 y haber saciado su sed con el agua que brot3 de la roca (ver en 1Cor 10:1-11).

Haber sido bautizados significa haber sido incorporados a la muerte y resurrecci3n salvadora de Cristo. Ello exige de nosotros una actitud din3mica de "comuni3n con sus padecimientos, muriendo su misma muerte, para llegar un d'a a la resurrecci3n de entre los muertos" (Fil. 3:11). Morir al pecado y vivir una vida nueva seg3n Dios son exigencia continua para los que un d'a fuimos bautizados.

La tercera lectura, (el evangelio de hoy), nos avisa contra el peligro de constituirnos en censores de los dem3s, como si fu3ramos justos.

Reflexiones del Papa Francisco

"Jesucristo, con su cercanía y ternura, conduce a los pecadores al lugar de la gracia y el perd3n. Esta es la misericordia de Dios."

"¡Abre tu coraz3n a la misericordia! La misericordia divina es m3s fuerte que los pecados de los hombres."

When attending Mass, please be mindful...the priest should be the last person to enter the Church... and the first one to leave.

Cuando asista a Misa, por favor recuerde...el sacerdote es la última persona que entra a la Iglesia...y el primero en salir.

The woman caught in adultery was to be stoned, but Jesus saved her: "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." And they immediately started slipping away, one by one. Jesus said to the woman, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" She replied, "No one, sir." Then Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more" (Jn 8:10-11). Jesus loves all people and wishes to save them - not by ignoring their sin, or calling evil good, but by repentance and helping them to change their lives in accordance with His teaching.

Jesus is always willing to forgive and save us, provided we recognize ourselves as sinners and not better than the other. We must demonstrate mercy and compassion. Mercy and forgiveness are fully demonstrated by the conversion of the sinner and changing of the way of life, as the adulterous woman did, when she experienced the true love of Jesus!

If by any circumstance you have doubts about any moral situation in your life, please make an appointment with a priest and God will help you to find peace in your heart.

I wish you many blessings from God during this Lenten season.

Father Celestino, Pastor

La mujer sorprendida en adulterio deb'a haber sido apedreada, pero Jesús la salva: "El que de vosotros está sin pecado que lance la primera piedra. Y se fueron escabullendo uno a uno. Jesús dijo a la mujer: "Ninguno te ha condenado? Ninguno, Señor. Tampoco yo te condeno. Anda y en adelante no peques más" (Jn 8:10-11). Jesús ama a todos los hombres y quiere salvarlos - no ignorando su pecado, o llamando al mal bien, sino más bien mediante el arrepentimiento y ayudándoles a cambiar sus vidas de acuerdo con sus enseñanzas.

Jesús está siempre dispuesto a perdonarnos y salvarnos con la condición de que nos reconozcamos pecadores y no mejores que los demás. Debemos demostrar misericordia y compasión. La misericordia y el perdón están totalmente demostrados por la conversión de los pecadores y el cambio de su forma de vida, como la mujer adúltera hizo, cuando experimentó el verdadero amor de Jesús!

Si por cualquier circunstancia tiene dudas acerca de alguna situación moral en su vida, por favor haga una cita con un sacerdote y Dios le ayudará a encontrar la paz en su corazón.

Les deseo muchas bendiciones de Dios en estos días de Cuaresma.

Padre Celestino, Párroco

While Planned Parenthood claims that abortions account for only 3% of its services, documents show that abortion fees are 40% of its medical income. Furthermore, 97% of pregnant women going to Planned Parenthood are sold abortions, but less than 2.4% percent of pregnant women receive non-abortion services. Adoption referrals are negligible. Planned Parenthood remains America's largest abortion supplier, responsible for 27% percent of all abortions done nationally.

Mientras que la clínica de abortos, "Planned Parenthood" afirma que los abortos representan sólo el 3% de sus servicios, los documentos muestran que el 40% de sus ingresos médicos son por honorarios de aborto. Además, el aborto se promociona y vende al 97% de las mujeres embarazadas que van a la clínica, mientras que menos del 2.4% por ciento de las mujeres embarazadas reciben servicios que no son de aborto. Las referencias y recomendaciones para adopción son insignificantes. La clínica de "Planned Parenthood" sigue siendo el mayor proveedor de abortos en los Estados Unidos, responsable del 27% por ciento de todos los abortos que se realizan a nivel nacional.
