Psalm 145

Dear Families:

Sometimes we can tell where a person is from and/or even their family's origin, simply by their manner of speech, attire, and/or their expressions. Of these hallmarks, the person is often not conscious. That's just the way it is. Today, Jesus explains how to recognize His friends. He says that by the love they have for each other. "See how they love each other", was sometimes said of the early Christians. This notion may sound romantic and somewhat sugar-coated. We talk a lot about love and it all sounds cute and very pretty, but if we ask anyone what is most important in life, they would quickly answer that it is love. Love, however, is not just a nice and cozy feeling, as some might think. Sometimes love is difficult, hard and complicated. It sometimes manifests, not so much as a good feeling, but as our endeavor to wish others well. Wishing well to others does not necessarily mean liking them, or always being in perfect harmony with them. Our tastes or personalities are not always in sync with those we love. Sometimes love requires a lot of sacrifice, patience and tolerance.

The love that Jesus asks of us is not a sentimental and sweet kind of love: it is stronger than death; it is service to the point of giving one's own life (as in the washing of the feet and the Passion of Jesus). It is stronger than hatred, because it seeks good, even for our enemies.

The love required of us is like the love that God has for us – unconditional - which is not to say that everything we are and do is to His liking. Rather, God does not withdraw His love even when we do not behave as we should. That is the same kind of love He expects us to show one another. We do not wait for people to be good, nice, friendly and easy to live with. Rather, we are called upon to love them - seek their good - despite, not because of what they do. This is how we will be recognized as followers of Christ. Otherwise, we would be just like any person who does things out of pleasure and self-gratification.

May God bless you.

Hechos 14:21-27; Apo 21:1-5a; Juan 13:31-33a, 34-35
Salmo 145 [144]

Queridas Familias:

A veces conocemos de dónde viene una persona, o incluso de qué familia, por su manera de hablar, de vestir, su voz, o su forma de mirar y sus expresiones. Son señas de identidad de las que a veces ni siquiera la persona es consciente. Simplemente, se es así. Hoy Jesús explica cómo reconocer a sus amigos. Dice que por el amor que se tienen unos a otros. "Vean cómo se aman", se decía a veces de los primeros cristianos. Puede sonar a noción romántica y demasiado azucarada. Hablamos mucho de amor y nos suena lindo, lindísimo. A cualquier grupo que se le pregunte qué es lo más importante en la vida, contesta rápidamente que el amor. Pero el amor no es simplemente un sentimiento bonito y agradable, como pueden pensar algunos. A veces es difícil, duro y complicado. Consiste, principalmente, no tanto en sentir lindo, sino en buscar y desear el bien a otros. Desear el bien, amar, no es necesariamente que alguien caiga bien, o que se sintonice porque los gustos o las personalidades encajen bien. A veces el amor exige mucho sacrificio, mucha paciencia y mucha tolerancia.

El amor que nos pide Jesús no es un amor sentimental y dulce: es más fuerte que la muerte; es servicio hasta dar la vida (como en el lavatorio de pies y la pasión de Jesús); es más fuerte que el odio, porque busca el bien, incluso del enemigo.

El amor que se nos pide es como el que nos tiene Dios: sin condiciones – lo cual no quiere decir que todo lo que hacemos o somos le parezca bien, sino que no nos retira su amor aunque no seamos o como debemos. Ese es el mismo amor que se nos pide a nosotros: no esperar a que la gente sea buena, agradable, simpática y de fácil convivencia, sino amar – buscar su bien – a pesar de todo. Así se nos puede conocer como seguidores de Cristo. De otra manera, no tendríamos ninguna distinción: haríamos lo que hace cualquier persona por gusto.

Que Dios los bendiga.

Padre Celestino, Párroco

Cuando asista a Misa, por favor recuerde...el sacerdote es la última persona que entra a la Iglesia...y el primero en salir.

Reflections of Pope Francis

Each vocation in the Church has its origin in the compassionate gaze of Jesus, who forgives us and calls us to follow Him.

Reflexiones del Papa Francisco

Cada vocación en la Iglesia tiene su origen en la mirada compasiva de Jesús que nos perdona y nos llama a seguirle.

The following words were written by a young lady who had an abortion. They illustrate the need for the Church and others in the pro-life movement to counsel those who feel pressured to abort, and to give them alternatives:

"The counseling was only pro-abortion. No information was given to me about pro-life choices or agencies at the abortion clinic. They also told me it wouldn't hurt. It was extremely painful. I was not told anything about how this would affect me for the rest of my life."

"La orientación fue sólo pro-aborto. Ninguna información me fue dada sobre opciones pro-vida o agencias en la clínica de aborto. También me dijeron que no será doloroso y fue extremadamente doloroso. No me dijeron nada acerca de cómo esto me afectará para el resto de mi vida."

MASS & ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Mass will be celebrated by our Pastor, Fr. Celestino, the last Saturday of the Month, April 30th, at 7:30 a.m., followed by the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick.

Pope Francis said during a recent public audience: "The compassion of God towards human suffering is found in the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick." Receiving this sacrament must serve to help the faithful broaden their "view of the experience of illness and suffering, in the horizon of God's mercy."

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

April, 2016

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

All still recall the historic visit of Pope Francis to the United States last September. It was an honor to welcome His Holiness to our country and listen to his words of love for us. The Catholic Bishops of the United States wanted to be sure that everyone joined in the excitement of the visit, and they called on the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC) to make that possible.

The CCC enabled thousands of Catholics to participate in the Papal events remotely. CCC funds enabled live streaming of the events; empowered Catholic News Service coverage by a team of reporters, editors, photographers, and videographers; and facilitated coverage of the events, reaching people from all over the globe. This visit truly had unprecedented reach in sharing the Gospel and it reflects the ongoing impact of the CCC in helping to evangelize and engage people with their faith. Such efforts would not be possible without your support!

Your contributions to the Catholic Communication Campaign continue the work of communicating the Gospel message in our country. This Collection will be held in the Diocese of Venice on May 7 and 8, 2016. Please remember, 50% of all funds collected remain here in the Diocese of Venice to support our local communication and evangelization efforts which include the weekly broadcast of the televised Mass.

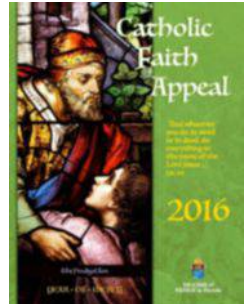

I take this opportunity to assure you and your families of my continued consideration as well as my prayers. Thank you for your generosity!

Sincerely yours in Christ,
