Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

May 29, 2016

Genesis 14:18-20; 1 Cor 11:23-26; Lk 9:11b-17
Psalm 110

Dear Families:

In Jesus, God made himself visible and tangible; of flesh and blood; corporeal. He knew how important the body is for us as a means of communication and relationship, and for this reason he also delivered his body up, in Christ: "...eat this I give you, for it is my body, this is my blood..." A body, delivered, crucified and bled, became a living and resurrected body, which no one can destroy. "Not by bread alone does man live ..." (Deuteronomy 8:4), he also needs the Word of God alive and close. Jesus tells us: "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; this is my flesh for the life of the world" (John 6:51).

Before eating solids, a child is nourished for nine months in the womb, and for several weeks after birth. Thus is the child in close relation to the mother's body and blood. We can also think that humans, before sitting down to the final table in heaven, must seek to be fed with the body and blood of their God. The celebration of the Eucharist is the umbilical cord by which God conveys His eternal life. But to enjoy this food, one needs to be hungry; to be aware of this bread that comes from the mouth and heart of God; to feel that one is dead when one is not fed from it.

To celebrate the feast of the Body of Christ is to recognize that religion is not limited to pure thoughts and ideas or abstract thinking; it is something within everyone's reach. True religion relates us to, and puts us in touch with the heart of God himself, through communion with His own body. To carefully meditate on the mystery of the Eucharist makes me shudder. It is to take God in my hands; to bring him close to my lips; and to feel his blood invading my veins. It is to live of Him and in Him. Isn't this awesome?

This glorious body that allows me to relate to God, also demands from me to have contact with my brothers and sisters. This is why St. Augustine reminds us of the significance of these three words: "Body of Christ" that we hear before receiving Communion: "Receive what you are and be what you receive". As a Christian you are the body of Christ, you are the Church. Express your appreciation of this belonging by being a useful and loving member of this Body. Every Mass is the celebration of this mystery. And without Mass - without the Eucharist and Communion - there is no Church. Remember what Christ intended when He said: "Do this in memory of me".

I am sorry to have to call the attention of parents regarding their children's Communion. Do your children attend Mass after they have received their First Communion? Sadly we find that many have stayed behind on the path to Christian maturity, and, deprived of the spiritual food of Christ, fall prey to the evils of the street. I pray for them.

May God bless you,

Father Celestino, Pastor

Solemnidad del Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo

29 de Mayo del 2016

Genesis 14:18-20; 1 Cor 11:23-26; Lc 9:11b-17;
Salmo 110

Queridas Familias:

Cristo, siendo Dios misterioso, se hizo visible y tangible, se hizo carne y sangre, se hizo cuerpo. Sabía lo importante que es para nosotros el cuerpo como medio de comunicación y relación, por eso también se entregó como cuerpo: "coman de esto que yo les entrego, pues es mi cuerpo, es mi sangre". Un cuerpo entregado, crucificado, despedazado, pero un cuerpo vivo y resucitado, que nadie podrá destruir. "No solo de pan vive el hombre" (Deuteronomio 8,4), también necesita la Palabra viva y cercana de Dios. Jesús nos dice: "Yo soy el Pan vivo bajado del cielo; esta es mi carne que da vida al mundo" (Juan 6,51).

El niño o antes de comer alimentos sólidos se nutre durante nueve meses y muchas semanas después del cuerpo y la sangre de su madre. Podemos pensar también que el ser humano, antes de sentarse a la mesa definitiva en el cielo, tiene que buscar ser alimentado con el cuerpo y la sangre de su Dios. La celebración de la Eucaristía es el cordón umbilical por el cual Dios nos trasmite su vida eterna. Pero para disfrutar de este alimento, uno necesita tener hambre, estar pendiente de este pan que sale de la boca y del corazón de Dios; sentir que no está muerto cuando no se alimenta de Él.

Celebrar la fiesta del Cuerpo de Cristo es reconocer que la religión no se queda en ideas o puros pensamientos y abstracciones; es algo al alcance de todos; la religión nos relaciona, nos pone en comunicación con el corazón del mismo Dios, a través de su mismo cuerpo. Pensar detenidamente en el misterio de la Eucaristía me estremece: es tomar a Dios en mis manos, es acercarlo a mis labios, es sentirlo invadiendo mis venas con su sangre, es vivir de Él y en Él. ¿No es esto demasiado?

Este cuerpo glorioso que me hace relacionarme con Dios, también me exige ponerme en contacto con los hermanos: por eso San Agustín nos recuerda que significan estas tres palabras "Cuerpo de Cristo" que oímos antes de recibir la Comunión: "Recibe lo que eres y sé lo que recibes". Por ser cristiano eres cuerpo de Cristo, eres Iglesia. Demuéstralo con el amor siendo miembro fiel y amoroso de este Cuerpo.

Cada Misa es la celebración de este misterio. Y sin Misa, sin Eucaristía y Comunión no hay Iglesia como la quiso Cristo cuando dijo: "Hagan esto en memoria mía".

Lamento tener que llamar la atención a los padres con respecto a la Comunión de sus hijos: "Vienen sus hijos a la Misa después de haber hecho su Primera Comunión?" Tristemente constatamos que muchos se han quedado atrás en el camino de su madurez cristiana, y, desposeídos del alimento espiritual de Cristo son fáciles presa de lo malo de la calle. Pido a Dios por ellos.

Que Dios les bendiga,

Padre Celestino, Pbro

Out of respect for the Eucharist, the celebrant priest and for the congregation, please DO NOT leave the Church right after Communion, but stay until the final Blessing. Thank you!!

Prayer for Memorial Day

God of power and mercy,
You destroy war and put down earthy pride.
Banish violence from our midst and wipe away our tears,
That we may all deserve to be called your sons and daughters.
Keep in your mercy those men and women
Who have died in the cause of freedom
And bring them safely
Into your kingdom of justice and peace.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Reflections of Pope Francis

□ To communicate with mercy means to help create a healthy, free and fraternal closeness among the children of God. □

□ To understand, forgive, accompany and integrate. That is the mindset which should prevail in the Church. □

THANK YOU

Deacon Humberto Alvia, thanks Father Celestino Gutierrez and the community of St. Jude Church for their support and generosity to the Ecuadorian people in their time of dire need. The Gospel of Luke 3:11 says: He said to them in reply, "Whoever has two cloaks should share with the person who has none. And whoever has food should do likewise." And that, my brothers and sisters, is what we are called to practice. May God bless you.

Deacon Humberto Alvia

GRACIAS

El Diácono Humberto Alvia, agradece al Padre Celestino Gutierrez y a la comunidad de la Iglesia de San Judas por su apoyo y generosidad al pueblo Ecuatoriano en sus momentos de extrema necesidad. El Evangelio de San Lucas 3:11 dice: Respondiendo El, les declaró: "El que tiene dos túnicas que comparta con el que no tiene, y el que tiene que comer, que haga lo mismo." Y eso mis hermanos, es lo que somos llamados a practicar. Que Dios los bendiga.

Diácono Humberto Alvia

Help Needed with Fundraising at My Choice Pregnancy Center

We need your help! Currently we are looking to set up an event planning/fundraising committee and need volunteers who would be interested in helping us with several events that we have coming up this year.

My Choice Pregnancy Center's mission is to assist women experiencing an unplanned pregnancy. We provide many services including prenatal support, parenting education, life skills counseling, materials assistance in the form of diapers, clothes, baby items and referrals to other service providers. We also offer loving support to women who need to discuss their feelings about their past abortion experiences.

To learn more about us and to get involved, visit our website at: www.mychoicepregnancycenter.com

If interested in helping with our fundraising efforts please call 941-351-3007 or email cghuston@aol.com.
