Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

June 19, 2016

Zech 12:10-11; 13:1; Gal 3:26-29; Lk 9:18-24
Psalm 63

Dear Families:

Once again, this Sunday, the Church presents us with the teachings of Christ, the patient Messiah, whose essential traits we cannot forget, because we are called to imitate them.

Jesus' Jewish contemporaries expected a triumphant Warrior Messiah, who would shake off the oppressive yoke of Roman rule, and then consolidate & secure a place for Judaism, in the world.

No doubt, the early followers of Jesus held similar expectations, forgetting the prophecies of Isaiah: "He was wounded for our transgressions, crushed to death for our sins ... it was our infirmities that he bore, our sufferings that he endured ... like a lamb led to the slaughter or a sheep before the shearers, he was silent and opened not his mouth... he shall take away the sins of many, and win pardon for their offenses." (Is 52: 13... 53:4-5, 7, 12)

If Jesus had presented himself to the people in this light, from the beginning, however, it may well be that no one would have followed him. Instead he held this most difficult information close, until his followers were convinced that he was the long awaited Messiah.

After Peter's confession, at Caesarea Philippi, which the other eleven disciples made theirs, Jesus began to disclose the suffering and death that he was destined to endure. At first, they did not understand, and then they naturally became sad. Peter tried to dissuade Him. Even on the eve of his Ascension into heaven, Jesus was asked whether the time has come to restore the kingdom of Israel. Jesus had already said at the Last Supper: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth..." (Jn 16:12 ...).

Just as it was difficult for Jesus' contemporaries to accept a patient Messiah, so it can be a challenge for us to accept being incorporated, through baptism, into a faith that will lead us to share the same fate. As our faith takes hold, however, we come to understand and accept this image of a patient Messiah. We must bear witness to His passion and death, before we can meditate upon His glorious resurrection and triumphant seating at the right hand of the Father. Thus does Jesus manifest as the source of all salvation...through the dual essence: Servant of Yahweh and glorious Messiah.

Décimosegundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

19 de Junio del 2016

Zac 12:10-11; 13:1; G^o 3:26-29; Lucas 9:18-24
Salmo 63 [62]

Queridas Familias:

Una vez más la Iglesia nos presenta en este domingo la enseñanza de Cristo sobre el Mesías paciente, cuyos rasgos esenciales no podemos olvidar, porque estamos llamados a reproducirlos en nosotros.

Los judíos contemporáneos de Jesús mayoritariamente esperaban un Mesías guerrero, triunfante, que había de sacudir el yugo opresor de la dominación romana e implementar solemnemente el judaísmo en el mundo.

Los primeros seguidores de Jesús pensaban lo mismo, y se olvidaban de los anuncios proféticos del Siervo de Yahvé del profeta Isaías (Is 52:13...; 53:4-5, 7, 12....) que decían con claridad: "Fue herido por nuestras rebeldías, molido a golpes por nuestras culpas...Eran nuestras dolencias las que él llevaba y nuestros dolores que él soportaba...Como un cordero al degüello era llevado y, como una oveja que ante los que la trasquilan está muda, tampoco él abrió la boca...El llevó los pecados de muchos e intercedió por los rebeldes".

Si Jesús se hubiera presentado al pueblo de esa manera quizá no lo hubiera seguido nadie; silenció en un principio su condición paciente, hasta que sus más cercanos seguidores estuvieron convencidos de que él era el Mesías tantos siglos esperado.

A partir de la confesión de Pedro en Cesárea de Filipo, que los otros once discípulos hicieron suya, Jesús comenzó a anunciarles su futura pasión y muerte. Al principio no entendían, más tarde se pusieron tristes, Pedro trató de disuadirlo; incluso momentos antes de su Ascensión al cielo le preguntan si es ahora el momento en que iba a restablecer el reino de Israel. Jesús ya les había dicho en la última Cena: "Muchas cosas tengo que decirles; pero ahora no pueden con ellas. Cuando venga él, el Espíritu de la Verdad, los guiará hasta la verdad completa (Jn 16:12...).

Si difícil era para los contemporáneos de Jesús admitir un Mesías paciente, más difícil, por la parte que a cada uno nos toca, es sentirse incorporados por el bautismo a un Mesías paciente; y destinados, por tanto, a seguir su misma suerte. Para nosotros hoy, no es problema aceptar la imagen de un Mesías paciente. Somos testigos de su afrentosa pasión y muerte. Pero sabemos que resucitó glorioso y está triunfante a la derecha del Padre. Jesús reúne en sí la doble figura del Siervo de Yahvé y del Mesías glorioso, fuente de salvación para todos.

What is difficult for us to accept is the fact that our human and also our Christian condition can cause us pain and suffering. Only by following Jesus in faith and perseverance, in sorrow and in joy, can we understand that the happiness that we all so much desire and strive for will be fully realized beyond this stage on earth. The glory of Easter Sunday, the Resurrection, will be there for us, at the end, but we must go through the passion of Good Friday, on the way. This was the path of Jesus, and the one he lays out for us: "No one comes to the Father except through me" (Jn 14:6).

May God give you peace in the midst of the tribulations that we all must endure, on the road to the Father. Remember...Jesus is with us.

Congratulations to those who are fathers! Let us pray for our fathers, living and dead, and for all those who in one way or another in life have encouraged, us to live, to risk, to grow, to mature and to go forward as free people.

On the occasion of the 52nd anniversary of my priestly ordination, on June 24th, I ask for your prayers. You are always in my prayers.

May God bless you.

Father Celestino, Pastor

Mensaje de la página 3...

Lo que nos resulta difícil es aceptar que nuestra condición humana y además cristiana nos cause dolor y sufrimiento. Solamente siguiendo a Jesús con fe y perseverancia, en el dolor y en la alegría, podremos entender que la felicidad que tanto anhelamos se realizará plenamente más allá de esta etapa en la tierra. La gloria del domingo de Pascua, de la Resurrección, será el final; pero hay que pasar por la pasión del Viernes Santo. Este fue el camino de Jesús, y él es para nosotros el camino: "Nadie va al Padre sino por él" (Jn 14,6).

Que Dios les dé paz en medio del dolor y de este camino hacia el Padre. Jesús va a nuestro lado.

¡Felicidades a los que son padres! Recemos por nuestros padres vivos y difuntos y por todos aquellos que de una forma u otra en la vida nos han empujado, animado, alentado a vivir, a arriesgarnos, a crecer, a madurar y a vivir como personas en libertad.

Con motivo del 52º Aniversario de mi Ordenación Sacerdotal el 24 de junio, les pido por sus oraciones. Ustedes están siempre en mis oraciones.

Que Dios les bendiga,

Padre Celestino, Pírroco

Today, we show our appreciation to all fathers who have devoted much of their lives to their children. And we recall the Supreme Court abortion decision that took away the opportunity of many fathers to do so. Yes, while mothers are given a "choice" to abort, many fathers are left out of the decision. But there is help and support for fathers affected by abortion. Call Project Rachel toll-free at 1-888-456-4873 or go to www.hopeafterabortion.com. DIOCESE OF VENICE IN FLORIDA
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

June 2016

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In this Jubilee Year of Mercy, the Peter's Pence Collection is an opportunity to become a witness of charity to those who suffer most. Pope Francis has encouraged all to "open your eyes and see the misery of the world".

Through the Peter's Pence Collection, one stands in solidarity with Catholics all over the world to support the charitable works of our Holy Father. Contributions to this collection provide the Holy Father with the financial means to respond with emergency assistance to those who are suffering as a result of war, oppression, religious persecution, etc.

Thank you for standing in solidarity with the Holy Father through your generosity. In addition, please continue to pray for our brothers and sisters in faith who are facing adversity.

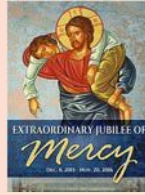

The Diocese of Venice is scheduled to hold the Peter's Pence Collection on the weekend of June 25-26, 2016. Your past support of this collection has ensured that the Successor of Peter is able to respond to those most in need throughout our world. Please consider participating in this collection and becoming a witness of charity, a force of mercy that reaches out to those around the world.

I take this opportunity to extend to you my continued consideration and my prayers!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane

THE JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY, QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Why did Pope Francis call the Jubilee Year of Mercy?

In his Bull of Indiction announcing the Jubilee Year of Mercy, Pope Francis wrote:

We need constantly to contemplate the mystery of mercy. It is a wellspring of joy, serenity, and peace. Our salvation depends on it...At times we are called to gaze even more attentively on mercy so that we may become a more effective sign of the Father's action in our lives. For this reason, I have proclaimed an Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy as a special time for the Church, a time when the witness of believers might grow stronger and more effective.
(Misericordiae Vultus, 2-3)

Mercy is a dominant theme for the pontificate of Pope Francis, and this Jubilee Year is intended to emphasize Mercy throughout the universal Church.

During the 2016 Fortnight for Freedom, the Diocese of Venice is hosting two prayer services for Religious Freedom followed by a Movie Night featuring the movie "Risen", the story of a Roman soldier who witnessed the execution of Jesus. During his mission his doubts of a supernatural occurrence peel away as he encounters the Apostles and other historic biblical characters and bears witness to the legendary storied events that follow the Resurrection.
