Fourth Sunday of Advent

December 18, 2016

Isaiah 7:10-14; Romans 1:1-7; Matthew 1:18-24
Psalm 24

Dear Families:

One of the great mysteries of life is the conception of a new being. When we see a mother with child, we feel that there is something especially mysterious that is beyond our human capabilities: a new being grows in the womb of his mother, and one day will be born to light.

We can now ask this very thing when we contemplate Mary in the mystery of the child she carries in her womb, and who will be born, as it usually happens with all children, within 9 months conception. In this case, it is by the direct, creative power of God that the child is carried in Mary's womb. This miracle, the virgin birth of God-among-us, not only enhances the mystery of life, but constitutes a primary article of our faith.

Just as God is able to give life to a new being from the fruit of the love of a man and a woman, He chose to express His love for us, through the virgin womb of Mary. He chose to send His Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior to us, through the virgin womb of Mary. Where we are not capable of creating life, God shines a new life, Jesus, who is God-among-us and our Savior.

The power of God is capable of anything. Our hope is well founded in our God and in Jesus, the son of Mary. It is important to realize that in our world, beyond the advances and discoveries of science, there is another more profound and important TRUTH, which is the TRUTH of God's creative power that has illuminated a new life in Christ to every man and woman of good will who seeks God.

As Christmastime nears, it should be a time of reflection, meditation and prayer. The Christmas tree decorations, the shopping, the gifts ... should reflect that in our hearts there is a light of hope because Christ is born to us, for us and because of us.

Blessings,

Father Celestino, Pastor

Cuarto Domingo de Adviento

18 de Diciembre del 2016

Isaías 7:10-14; Romanos 1:1-7; Mateo 1:18-24
Salmo 24 [23]

Queridas Familias:

Uno de los grandes misterios de la vida es la concepción de un nuevo ser. Cuando vemos a una madre esperando un hijo, sentimos que hay algo especialmente misterioso que supera nuestras capacidades humanas: un nuevo ser va creciendo en el vientre de su madre, y un día nacerá a la luz.

Esto mismo podemos hoy preguntarnos al contemplar a María en el misterio de ese niño que lleva en sus entrañas y que nacerá, como normalmente pasa con todos los niños, a los 9 meses de su concepción. Es el poder creador de Dios en este caso, de ese niño que María lleva en sus entrañas; no ha habido concurso de varón, y esto aumenta a niveles de revelación y de fe el misterio de la vida, de Dios y del Dios que nace entre nosotros hecho carne en el seno virginal de María.

Al igual que Dios es capaz de dar vida a un nuevo ser fruto del amor de un hombre y de una mujer, así Dios quiso amarnos y buscó en María su concurso para formar en su vientre la humanidad del hijo de Dios, Jesucristo, donde nosotros no somos capaces de crear vida, Dios alumbró una vida, Jesús, que es Dios con nosotros y nuestro salvador.

El poder de Dios es capaz de todo. Nuestra esperanza está bien fundada en nuestro Dios y en Jesús el hijo de María. Es importante descubrir en esto que en nuestro mundo, más allá de los avances y descubrimientos de la ciencia hay otra VERDAD más profunda e importante: la VERDAD del poder creador de Dios que ha alumbrado una nueva vida en Cristo para todo hombre y mujer que de buena voluntad buscan a Dios.

Estos días cercanos a la Navidad deben de ser también de reflexión, meditación, oración. Los adornos del árbol, las compras, los regalos...deben reflejar que en nuestros corazones hay una luz de esperanza porque Cristo nace para y por nosotros. Bendiciones,

Padre Celestino, Párroco

Out of respect for the Eucharist, the celebrant priest and for the congregation, please DO NOT leave the Church right after Communion, but stay until the final Blessing. Thank you!!

Christian Meditation Group Invites You...

In quiet and in trust your strength lies...Isaiah 30:15

We are all seekers of wisdom who long for the touch of the Sacred in our lives. In the frenzy of daily life how do we calm our minds and hearts long enough to embrace silence and open ourselves to encounters of the Spirit?

Christian meditation is the experience of taking time away from the distractions of everyday to be still and simple in a quiet place. What better time of year than Advent to practice the discipline of 'waiting upon the Lord'. "We look forward to you joining us on Monday evenings at 5:00 p.m. to learn how meditation may bring peace and beauty to your life."
