Fifth Sunday of Easter

May 14, 2017

Acts 6:1-7; 1 Peter 2:4-9; John 14:1-12

Psalm 33

Dear Families:

From the time we are born we begin a journey. From our Baptism, our journey only has one goal: God. Faith gives us the certainty that God is there at the end of our life and that we will personally meet with him face to face.

Our life of faith is like the trips we usually take. We travel for vacations, to visit sick relatives, attend funerals, or to watch a game or performance. We enjoy certain trips more than others, and some we do not like at all. But the truth is that we are always on a journey.

From before the dawn of civilization, man has worked toward developing and improving his means of travel, from trails to roads to seaways to air routes. Man establishes all of these, and God has endowed him with the freedom and the means to do so.

Each trip requires some amount of preparation: destinations; routes; means of transportation; the luggage we will take; what documents we will need; how much clothing and money we need. There is always some level of uncertainty when traveling. We never really know what we will find along the way, or when we reach our destination.

Our life is like the trips we take. We will face uncertainties, obscurities, doubts and disappointments. But, one way or another, we are making our own way. As the Spanish poet Antonio Machado once said: "For the traveler there is no path; paths are made by walking"

The Word of God tells us that to travel a righteous path, we must do God's will, which is summarized in the love of God and love of neighbor. In today's gospel, Jesus tells us that He is the Way, the Truth and the Life. Jesus is our life companion. By listening to him, we hear the truth about the path that we are taking. We find that, soon after we accept his company, on our journey, He becomes our sustenance, nourishing us to withstand the rigors of the journey. He IS the Way. The only pathway to God is through Jesus. Let us always allow Jesus to guide us by the hand. This is how we journey in confidence towards God with our family and friends, in our parish. Most importantly, this is how we teach our children to find their path.

May God bless you.

Quinto Domingo de Pascua

14 de Mayo del 2017

Hechos 6:1-7; 1 Pedro 2:4-9; Juan 14:1-12

Salmo 33 [32]

Queridas Familias:

Desde que nacemos vamos haciendo un viaje. Desde el Bautismo nuestro viaje tiene una meta: Dios. La fe nos da la seguridad de que ahí está Dios al final de nuestra vida y nos encontraremos personalmente con EL cara a cara.

Nuestra vida de fe se asemeja a los viajes que solemos hacer: Viajamos para tomar vacaciones, viajamos para visitar a familiares enfermos o para asistir a un funeral, viajamos para ver un espectáculo deportivo o artístico. Unos viajes nos gustan más que otros y algunos no nos gustan nada. Pero la verdad es que siempre estamos viajando.

Los seres humanos, desde el principio de la creación, hemos ido haciendo caminos para viajar: carreteras, rutas marítimas, rutas aéreas, veredas, senderos. El ser humano hace caminos que no estaban hechos, Dios le dejó la opción libre de hacerlos.

Cada viaje exige unos preparativos de acuerdo a donde vamos a ir: saber el camino, el autobús o el avión, las direcciones; preparar el equipaje, maletas, ropa, documentos, dinero. Siempre hay algo de incierto en los viajes; nunca sabemos con certeza lo que vamos a encontrar por el camino o a llegar al lugar de destino.

Parecido a los viajes es nuestra propia vida. Tenemos incertidumbres, oscuridades, malos momentos, dudas; pero todos de una u otra forma vamos haciendo nuestros propio camino; como dice el poeta español Antonio Machado: El caminante no hay camino, se hace camino al andar.

La Palabra de Dios nos dice que caminar es hacer la voluntad de Dios que se resume en practicar el amor a Dios y el amor al prójimo. En el evangelio que leemos hoy, Jesús nos dice que El es el Camino, la Verdad y la Vida. Jesús es el compañero de nuestra vida; al escucharle, escuchamos la Verdad del camino que vamos haciendo; al aceptarle en nuestra compañía El es nuestra Vida, nuestro alimento para el camino; al estar junto a nosotros El es nuestro Camino, el Camino de Dios que hacemos con Jesús. Hagamos siempre nuestro camino llevados de la mano por Jesús; así estaremos haciendo los caminos de Dios en la familia, con los amigos, en la educación de los niños, en la parroquia.

Que Dios los bendiga.

Padre Celestino, Párroco

May 14

The most important person on earth is a mother. She cannot claim the honor of having built Notre Dame Cathedral. She need not. She has built something more magnificent than any cathedral -- a dwelling for an immortal soul, the tiny perfection of her baby's body. The angels have not been blessed with such a grace. They cannot share in God's creative miracle to bring new saints to Heaven. Only a human mother can. Mothers are closer to God the Creator than any other creature; God joins forces with mothers in performing this act of creation. What on God's good earth is more glorious than this: to be a mother?-- Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty

14 de Mayo

La persona más importante en la tierra es una madre. No puede reclamar el honor de haber construido la catedral de Notre Dame. Ella no necesita. Ha construido algo más magnífico que cualquier catedral: una morada para un alma inmortal, la diminuta perfección del cuerpo de su bebé. Los ángeles no han sido bendecidos con tal gracia. No pueden compartir el milagro creador de Dios para traer nuevos santos al Cielo. Sólo una madre humana puede. Las madres están más cerca de Dios el Creador que cualquier otra criatura; Dios une fuerzas con las madres en la realización de este acto de creación. ¿Qué en la buena tierra de Dios es más glorioso que esto: el ser madre? - Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty

Reflections of Pope Francis

"Let us be challenged by the words and actions of Jesus, and welcome his call to a life that is fully human, happy to spend itself in love."

"Let us allow ourselves to be surprised by the newness that Christ alone can give. May his tenderness and love guide our steps."

Reflexiones del Papa Francisco

"Dejémonos provocar por las palabras y los gestos de Jesús, recibamos de Él una vida plenamente humana, dichosa de gastarse amando."

"Dejémonos sorprender por la novedad que sólo Cristo puede dar. Dejemos que su ternura y su amor muevan nuestros pasos."
