The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

June 18, 2017

Deu 8:2-3, 14b-16a; 1 Cor 10:16-17; John 6:51-58
Psalm 147

Dear Families:

Today, the Church celebrates the feast of the Body of Christ (Corpus Christi). At every Mass the feast of the Body and Blood of Christ is celebrated.

His sacrificed body and shed blood are our salvation. It is the sacrifice of Jesus and the blood he shed that sealed the New Covenant of God with humanity. This is the mystery of a new humanity that is born from Christ's side.

Before dying, Jesus said to us: "Take this and eat it, this is My Body," and the bread became His Body. "Take this and drink it, this is my Blood," and the wine became the Blood of Christ. This is the faith that we celebrate today. We believe in the presence of Jesus in the bread and wine consecrated by the priest at Mass. This is how we follow the mandate of Jesus, who, after instructing his disciples to eat his body and drink his blood said, "Do this in memory of me."

The Church teaches that Christ is entirely present in the Body (the consecrated bread) and entirely present in the Blood (the consecrated wine). Therefore, by receiving only the Body or the Blood, we receive Christ. In practice, the bread and wine consecrated during Mass are received by the priest, those who help on the altar and the Eucharistic ministers. On some Sunday Masses and special occasions, the faithful also receive the Blood of Christ.

Receiving Christ (through Communion) is our strength. By receiving Jesus, we are united with Him, we are one body united with Him (the Mystical Body); we cannot see or touch Him, but it is the Lord who is fully present in each of us.

We should go to communion In order to remain as children of God and to show Him and others our love. We should stay close to Christ and our brothers and sisters.

Let us help the children participate in Holy Communion on a regular basis.

May God bless you,

Fr. Celestino, Pastor

El Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo

18 de Junio del 2017

Deu 8:2-3, 14b-16a; 1 Cor 10:16-17; Juan 6:51-58
Salmo 147 [146]

Queridas Familias:

Hoy celebra la Iglesia la festividad del Cuerpo de Cristo (Corpus Christi). En cada Misa se celebra la fiesta del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo.

Su Cuerpo sacrificado y su Sangre derramada son nuestra salvación. Es el sacrificio de Jesús y es su Sangre que sella la Nueva Alianza de Dios con la humanidad. Este es el misterio de la nueva humanidad que nace del costado de Cristo.

Jesús, antes de morir, nos dijo: Tomén y coman, este es mi Cuerpo y el pan se convirtió en su Cuerpo. Tomén y beban, esta es mi Sangre y aquel vino se convirtió en la Sangre de Cristo. Esta es la fe que hoy celebramos. Creemos en la presencia de Jesús en el pan y el vino consagrados por el sacerdote en la Misa. Así seguimos el mandato de Jesús, quien después de dar a los discípulos a comer su Cuerpo y a beber su Sangre les dijo: Hagan esto en memoria mía.

La Iglesia nos enseña que Cristo está todo en el Cuerpo (el pan consagrado) y que está todo en la Sangre (el vino consagrado). Por eso basta recibir el Cuerpo para recibir a Cristo; y basta recibir la Sangre para recibir a Cristo. En la práctica reciben el pan y el vino consagrados los sacerdotes y los que le ayudan en el altar, y los fieles en algunas Misas dominicales y en ocasiones especiales.

Recibir a Cristo (comulgar) es nuestra fuerza. Recibimos a Jesús, nos unimos a Él, formamos unidos un solo cuerpo con EL (el Cuerpo Místico); no se ve ni se toca, pero es el Señor que está todo en todos.

Para mantener nuestra vida de hijos y nuestro amor a Dios y a los demás es necesario que comulgemos, que estemos unidos a Cristo y a los hermanos.

Ayuden a los niños en la práctica de la Comunión frecuente.

Que Dios los bendiga,

Padre Celestino, Párroco

WELCOME Please join Fr. Celestino, the clergy, staff and our Sacristan, Ana Maria in extending a warm welcome to Seminarian Gabriel Unger, who will be at our St. Jude Parish this summer.

Hello brothers and sisters my Name is Gabriel Unger. I am a Seminarian with the Diocese of Venice. I was born in Lebanon, Pennsylvania and moved to Nokomis, Florida where my parents currently live and where I was raised. I am the oldest of my sister and I. Currently I am a student at St. John Vianney College Seminary in Miami, Florida. I have just completed my freshman year of Philosophy and will enter my Sophomore year this coming August. I will be here at St. Jude Catholic Church until that time praying, talking and spending time with you and your families, learning, reading, eating and lastly following the wisdom of the priests here, especially Fr. Celestino. After graduating from Venice High School in 2014, I felt the inkling to want to do something different than your average 18-year-old and go to college; so through prayer I decided to go away and do missionary work with an organization called Net Ministries. For two years, I traveled the United States putting on retreats for young people at Catholic Parishes, High School and Middle Schools. In my spare time, I love to play and to watch sports with my two favorites being Golf and Tennis. I also enjoy the adventure of traveling, eating, and following the stock market. My prayer and hope for this summer is to learn as much as I can from this parish about the daily ins and outs of parish life and I look forward to meeting as many of you as possible and journeying with you this summer as we follow our Lord in his love and his mercy. Please don't hesitate to say hello.

Peace and Blessings, Gabriel Unger

BIENVENIDA - Inase al .P. Celestino, el clero, el personal y nuestra Sacristana, Ana María en darle una cálida bienvenida al Seminarista Gabriel Unger, que estará este verano en nuestra Parroquia de San Judas.

Hola hermanos y hermanas; mi nombre es Gabriel Unger. Soy un Seminarista de la Diócesis de Venice. Nací en Lebanon, Pensilvania y me mudé a Nokomis, Florida, donde viven mis padres y donde me criaron. Soy el mayor de mi hermana y yo. Actualmente soy estudiante en el Seminario Universitario San Juan Vianney en Miami, Florida. Acabo de terminar mi primer año de Filosofía y empezaré mi segundo año el próximo mes de agosto. Hasta ese momento, estaré aquí en la Iglesia Católica de San Judas, orando, hablando y pasando tiempo con ustedes y sus familias, aprendiendo, leyendo, comiendo y por último siguiendo la sabiduría de los sacerdotes aquí, especialmente el P. Celestino. Después de graduarme de la Escuela Secundaria de Venice en el 2014, sentí la inquietud de querer hacer algo diferente al joven promedio de 18 años e ir a la universidad; así que por medio de la oración decidí irme y hacer trabajo misionero con una organización llamada Net Ministries. Durante dos años, viajé por los Estados Unidos haciendo retiros para jóvenes en parroquias católicas, escuelas secundarias y escuelas intermedias. En mi tiempo libre, me encanta jugar y ver deportes mis dos favoritos son Golf y Tenis. También disfruto de la aventura de viajar, comer y seguir el mercado de valores. Mi oración y esperanza para este verano es aprender lo más que pueda de esta parroquia sobre las entradas y salidas cotidianas de la vida parroquial y espero encontrarme con tantos de ustedes como sea posible y viajar con ustedes este verano mientras seguimos a nuestro Señor en su amor y su misericordia. Por favor, no vacile en saludar.

Paz y bendiciones, Gabriel Unger
