Deut 18:15-20; 1 Cor 7:32-35; Marcos 1:21-28

Salmo 95 [94]

Dear Families:

This Sunday's reading focuses on the prophetic nature of Jesus. According to the prophecies of the Old Testament, and in light of the realization of the New Testament, the Messiah was to be – and Jesus was a priest, prophet and king.

In today's reading, with the announcement of the prophetic institution as permanent in Israel following the death of Moses, we see the distant signals of the Prophet (capitalized) who was to be the Messiah.

It should be clear that the Prophet is not only (or even primarily), one who predicts the future, but is, more importantly, he who speaks on behalf of God.

"I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their kinsmen, and will put my words into his mouth; he shall tell them all that I command him" (Deut 18:18). And so God did, with all the prophets, until the coming of the Messiah – the Prophet par excellence. The letter to the Hebrews reads: "In times past, God spoke in partial and various ways to our ancestors through the prophets; in these last days, he spoke to us through a son (Heb 1:1-2).

Jesus is the Prophet of God. It is He who speaks on behalf of his Father and endorses the words and doctrine with miracles. All were amazed and asked one another, "What is this? A new teaching with authority?" (Mk 1:27). "But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" – he then healed the paralytic (Mt 9:6). He proclaimed to be Light of the world and healed the man born blind (Jn 9). He claimed to be the resurrection and the life, and raised Lazarus in Bethany (John 11).

All baptized Christians share in Christ's prophetic office. So the priest proclaimed the day of our baptism, when our heads were anointed with Chrism, and he said that with Christ we were beginning to be priests, prophets and kings.

Reflections of Pope Francis

"Let us seek to live in a way that is always worthy of our Christian vocation."

"Practicing charity is the best way to evangelize."

Queridas Familias:

La liturgia de este domingo se centra en el profetismo de Jesús. De acuerdo a las profecías del Antiguo Testamento y a la luz de la realización del nuevo, el Mesías había de ser – y Jesús mostró ser sacerdote, profeta y rey.

En la primera lectura de hoy, junto al anuncio de la institución profética como algo permanente en Israel tras la desaparición de Moisés vemos el señalamiento a distancia del Profeta (con mayúscula) que había de ser el Mesías.

Conviene aclarar que Profeta no es sólo, ni principalmente, el que predice el porvenir, sino el que habla en nombre de Dios.

"Suscitaré un profeta de entre sus hermanos... Pondré mis palabras en su boca, y les dirá lo que yo le mande (Dt. 18:18). Y así lo hizo Dios con todos los profetas hasta que llegó el Mesías, el Profeta por excelencia. Dice la carta a los Hebreos: "En distintas ocasiones y de muchas maneras habló Dios antiguamente a nuestros padres por los profetas. Ahora, en esta etapa final, nos ha hablado por su Hijo" (Heb 1, 1s).

Jesús es el Profeta de Dios que habla en nombre de su Padre y avala con milagros las palabras, la doctrina. "Este enseñar con autoridad es nuevo" decía la gente (Mc 1, 27). Para probar que tenía poder de perdonar los pecados curó al paralítico en Cafarnaún (Mat 9, 6). Se proclamó luz al mundo, y curó al ciego de nacimiento (Jn 9). Dijo ser la resurrección y la vida, y resucitó a Lázaro en Betania (Jn 11).

Todo cristiano bautizado participa de la función profética de Cristo. Así lo proclamó el sacerdote el día de nuestro bautismo, al ungirnos la cabeza con el Crisma, dijo que empezábamos a ser con Cristo, sacerdotes, profetas y reyes.

Reflexiones del Papa Francisco

"Tratemos de vivir de una manera que sea siempre digna de nuestra vocación cristiana."

"La práctica de la caridad es la mejor manera de evangelizar."

We Christians are prophets of Jesus; "Whoever listens to you listens to me. Whoever rejects you rejects me. And whoever rejects me rejects the one who sent me." (Lk 10:16).

Our authority as prophets of Jesus is to convey his message accurately, without removing or adding anything. By our deeds we must confirm the faith we profess. We must do what we say. There is a Roman proverb that says: Words can move, but examples will haul.

May the Lord help us carry out our prophetic mission: announcing to the world the Gospel of Jesus and bearing witness to Him, through faith, hope and charity.

May God bless you,

Father Celestino, Pastor

Mensaje de la página 4...

Nosotros, los cristianos, somos profetas de Jesús; "Quien a vosotros escucha, a mí escucha; y quien a vosotros rechaza, a mí rechaza; y quien me rechaza a mí, rechaza al que me ha enviado" (Lc 10, 16).

Nuestra autoridad como profetas de Jesús está en que transmitamos su mensaje exactamente, sin quitar ni poner. Y con nuestras obras debemos corroborar la fe que profesamos, lo que decimos. Hay un refrán romano que dice: Las palabras mueven, los ejemplos arrastran.

Pidamos al Señor que los cristianos cumplamos con nuestra misión profética, anunciando al mundo el Evangelio de Jesús y dando testimonio de él por la fe, esperanza y caridad.

Que Dios los bendiga,

Padre Celestino, Párroco

February 1st

"The Father, through the Son, creates all human lives. The little one swimming in his mother's womb, the infant smiling in his father's arms, the child crying in pain in a hospital bed, the energetic teen running another mile, the old man gasping for his last breath -- all were created, at their beginning, by the Father through the Son. No exceptions. Divine life creates human life."-- Rev. Paul Stallsworth, Lifewatch president.

"El Padre, a través del Hijo, crea toda vida humana. El bebé nadando en el vientre de su madre, el bebé sonriendo en brazos de su padre, el niño llorando de dolor en una cama de hospital, el adolescente enérgico corriendo una milla, el anciano jadeando por su último aliento - todos fueron creados, en su inicio, por el Padre a través del Hijo. Sin excepciones. La vida divina crea la vida humana "...
- Rev. Paul Stallsworth, presidente de Lifewatch.

EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT EVERY THURSDAY

9:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. in the Church

The Eucharist is Jesus; Jesus is Love and 'Love is not loved.' (St. John of the Cross) So many are unwilling to make even the slightest sacrifice to visit Him, while He was willing to sacrifice everything to be with us in this most Blessed Sacrament. He laid down His mortal life for us so that He may raise us up to Divine life in this Holy Sacrament. "Greater love than this no one has, than to lay down his life for his friends." (Jn 15:13)

"Could you not watch one hour with Me?" (Mk 14:37) (Taken from: Rosary Meditations from Mother Teresa of Calcutta) Questions, call 705-0378 or 954-8476.

EXPOSICION DEL SANTISIMO SACRAMENTO TODOS LOS JUEVES

9:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. en la Iglesia

La Eucaristía es Jesús, y Jesús es Amor, pero el 'Amor no es amado.' (S. Juan de la Cruz) Hay tantos que no quieren hacer ni el más pequeño sacrificio para visitarlo, mientras que El estuvo dispuesto a sacrificarlo todo para estar con nosotros en este Santísimo Sacramento. El entregó su vida por nosotros para poder elevarnos hasta Su vida divina en este Santísimo Sacramento, "Nadie tiene mayor amor que el que da la vida por sus amigos" (Jn 15, 13).

"¿Ni una hora has podido velar?" (Mc 14, 37). (Tomado de: Meditaciones del Rosario de la Madre Teresa de Calcuta) Si tiene preguntas, llame al 705-0378 o 954-8476.

Out of respect for the Eucharist, the celebrant priest and for the congregation, please DO NOT leave the Church right after Communion, but stay until the final Blessing. Thank you!!
