Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 5, 2015

Ezequiel 2:2-5; 2 Cor 12:7-10; Mark 6:1-6

Psalm 123

Dear Families:

The true Prophet: In a biblical sense, a prophet is one who speaks in the name of God. God, through His prophets, enlightens the past, the present and future of human history; discloses the lessons in the divine plan, depicting the events of each day; announces God's saving plan; establishes rules for human behavior in its vertical and horizontal dimensions (God and man), while denouncing individual and social faults, with respect to God, as well as in relation to other men.

The true prophet usually stimulates an adverse reaction, as God's plans are often unwelcome, among men. This was the case, as we see today, with the prophet Ezekiel (Ez 2:3-6), and the same with Jesus (Mark 6:1-6), who is rejected in his native place, by his own people.

This is because we often do not want to hear God's voice, or follow his plan of salvation. Instead, we prefer our own plans, and easily follow a false prophet who flatters our ears, while we close our hearts to what God wants for our good.

While loving the world we live in, we Christians, like Christ, should bear witness to the message of divine revelation, through our words and actions. This message surpasses the common aspirations of human beings, and is not in tune with the twisted inclinations and machinations of the world.

Let us follow Jesus, even if sometimes it is costly; let us be His witnesses, even when we are not always welcomed.

May God bless you.

Father Celestino, Pastor

Reflections of Pope Francis

"The light of the Gospel guides all who put themselves at the service of the civilization of love."

"Journey, service and giving freely of oneself: true Christian witness encompasses all of these characteristics."

Décimo cuarto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

5 de Julio del 2015

Ezequiel 2:2-5; 2 Cor 12:7-10; Marcos 6:1-6

Salmo 123 [122]

Queridas Familias:

El verdadero Profeta: En sentido bíblico, profeta es el que habla en nombre de Dios. Dios, a través de sus profetas, ilumina el pasado, el presente y porvenir de la historia humana; descubre las enseñanzas que en el plan divino muestran los acontecimientos de cada día; anuncia los designios salvíficos de Dios; establece las normas de conducta humana en su dimensión vertical y horizontal (Dios y los hombres), denunciando los fallos individuales y sociales, y lo mismo respecto a Dios que en relación con los demás hombres.

El verdadero profeta, generalmente, provoca una reacción adversa. Los planes de Dios no son bien recibidos. Así sucede, como vemos hoy, con el profeta Ezequiel (Ez 2:3-6); y lo mismo con Jesús (Mc 6:1-6), que es rechazado en su propia tierra por los suyos.

Y es que muchas veces no queremos oír la voz de Dios ni seguir su plan de salvación y preferimos los nuestros; y fácilmente seguimos a un falso profeta que halaga nuestros oídos y cerramos el corazón a lo que Dios quiere para nuestro bien.

Los cristianos, como Cristo, aun amando al mundo en que vivimos, hemos de ofrecerle con la palabra y con el testimonio, el mensaje de la revelación divina. Este mensaje calma con creces las legítimas aspiraciones del ser humano; pero, de entrada, no sintoniza con las inclinaciones torcidas, ni con las inquietudes inconfesables del mundo.

Sigamos a Jesús, aunque a veces nos cueste; seamos sus testigos, aunque a veces no seamos bien recibidos.

Que Dios los bendiga.

Padre Celestino, Párroco

Reflexiones del Papa Francisco

"La luz del Evangelio guía a todos los que se ponen al servicio de la civilización del amor."

"Jornada, el servicio y el darse de uno mismo: el verdadero testimonio cristiano abarca todas estas características."

July 5

In "Laudato Si," his new encyclical on the environment, Pope Francis said concern for the protection of nature is "incompatible with the justification of abortion."

He asked, "How can we genuinely teach the importance of concern for other vulnerable beings, however troublesome or inconvenient they may be, if we fail to protect a human embryo, even when its presence is uncomfortable and creates difficulties?"

En "Laudato Si", su nueva encíclica sobre el medio ambiente, el Papa Francisco dijo que la preocupación por la protección de la naturaleza es "incompatible con la justificación del aborto."

Él preguntó: "¿Cómo podemos realmente enseñar la importancia de la preocupación por los demás seres vulnerables, por más molesto o inconveniente que sean, si no somos capaces de proteger a un embrión humano, aun cuando su presencia es incómoda y crea dificultades?"

Christian Meditation Group for Summer Months

Be Still and Know That I am God, PS 146:10

In silent meditation we take time away from the busy-ness and distractions of everyday to be still and simple in a quiet place to learn how to revisit that simplicity of spirit that was so available as children, Christian meditation offers a place within the Christian tradition to learn how to just Be, with and in and for God.

The St Jude Christian Meditation group shares the discipline and experience of silence, stillness and simplicity on Monday afternoon at 5:30 in the quiet room. We listen to a teaching in the tradition of the early desert mothers and fathers by Benedictines Laurence Freeman or John Main. There is a short taped talk on prayer of the heart and then a shared period of silence. All are invited!

A prayer for our earth

All-powerful God, you are present in the whole universe and in the smallest of your creatures.

You embrace with your tenderness all that exists.

Pour out upon us the power of your love, that we may protect life and beauty.

Fill us with peace, that we may live as brothers and sisters, harming no one.

O God of the poor, help us to rescue the abandoned and forgotten of this earth, so precious in your eyes.

Bring healing to our lives, that we may protect the world and not prey on it, that we may sow beauty, not pollution and destruction.

Touch the hearts of those who look only for gain at the expense of the poor and the earth.

Teach us to discover the worth of each thing, to be filled with awe and contemplation, to recognize that we are profoundly united with every creature as we journey towards your infinite light.

We thank you for being with us each day.

Encourage us, we pray, in our struggle for justice, love and peace.

Amen.
