Psalm 19

Dear Families:

For modern man the concept of "scandal" no longer carries much importance. Today's scandals are so many and so great that they no longer attract attention. We have become used to witnessing and becoming victims of scandals. We tolerate scandals instead of fighting to eradicate them.

But for Jesus, a scandal is a grave evil that deserves eternal punishment. Jesus speaks of the "little ones" who are victims of scandal. In this instance, "little ones" are not only the children, but also simple people and people of good faith who are victims of deception. They are dragged down into temptation by unscrupulous men who manipulate and pervert them.

Just think for a moment of the ravaging effects that pornography, violence and drug abuse have on our children and adolescents.

There are also many other forms of scandal, often far more serious. Take, for instance, the thousands of human beings in this world that are tortured and killed daily; the migrants who suffer or die in the crossing of borders. What of the social injustice and discrimination, endured by individuals and groups, all around the world? There are those who trample on human rights with impunity and arbitrarily dispose of human life. Are these not scandals?

One way to view a scandal is the evil emplacement of an obstacle to the exercise of the God-given right, of a person or persons (especially the innocent), to live and develop their faith, in peace.

The damage brought on by scandal (and the guilt involved) are so great, for anyone who causes it, that it would be better that a millstone be tied around his neck and be cast into the sea.

This clearly expresses the value of "little one" in the eyes of God.

May God Bless you.

Father Celestino, Pastor

Reflections of Pope Francis

"In spite of injustices and sufferings, the Lord's victory is certain."

"God loves the lowly. When we live humbly, he takes our small efforts and creates great things."

"We learn many virtues in our Christian families. Above all, we learn to love, asking nothing in return."

Vigésimo Sexto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

27 de Septiembre del 2015

Números 11:25-29; Santiago 5:1-6; Marcos 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

Salmo 19 []

Queridas Familias:

Para el hombre moderno el concepto de "escándalo" no reviste ya mayor importancia. Hoy son tantos y tan grandes los escándalos que ya no llaman la atención. Nos hemos acostumbrado a presenciar escándalos, a ser víctimas de escándalos, a permitir escándalos en vez de luchar para extirparlos y hacerlos desaparecer.

Pero para Jesús el escándalo es un mal gravísimo que merece el castigo eterno. Jesús habla de "pequeños" que son víctimas de escándalo. Aquí los "pequeños" no son sólo los niños, sino también la gente sencilla y de buena fe que es víctima de engaños y es arrastrada al mal por hombres sin escrúpulos que la manipula y la pervierte.

Basta pensar un momento en los estragos que causan entre niños y adolescentes la pornografía, la violencia y el abuso de las drogas.

Pero hay escándalos de otra índole y tal vez más graves aún. Tomemos, por ejemplo, los miles de seres humanos en este mundo que son torturados y asesinados diariamente; los emigrantes que sufren o mueren en el cruce de las fronteras. Las injusticias sociales que discriminan a personas y a naciones enteras. Los que atropellan los derechos humanos con impunidad y disponen arbitrariamente de la vida o de la libertad de los demás. ¿No son estos escándalos?

Dar escándalo significa poner un tropiezo a alguien, especialmente a la gente sencilla y sin malicia. Significa hacerla caer en el mal; destruir su fe.

El daño que trae consigo y la culpa que supone son tan grandes para aquel que lo provoca que sería mejor que le ataran una piedra de molino al cuello y lo echaran al mar.

Con esto queda claramente expresado el precio que los "pequeños" tienen a los ojos de Dios.

Que Dios los Bendiga.

Padre Celestino, Párroco

Reflexiones del Papa Francisco

"A pesar de las injusticias y sufrimientos, la victoria del Señor es cierta."

"Dios ama a los humildes. Cuando vivimos con humildad, El toma nuestros pequeños esfuerzos y crea grandes cosas."

"Aprendemos muchas virtudes en nuestras familias cristianas. Por encima de todo, aprendemos a amar, sin pedir nada a cambio."

Out of respect for the Eucharist, the celebrant priest and for the congregation, please DO NOT leave the Church right after Communion, but stay until the final Blessing. Thank you!!

September 27th

Today's Gospel speaks of one of the rationales by which we call people to great sacrifice to protect and preserve life, whether of the unborn, the terminally ill and disabled, or anyone else. To directly take the life of another innocent person is to commit the kind of offense against God that the Lord commands us to avoid at all costs. In the case of abortion, it may not be one's hand or eye that leads to sin, but rather one's friends or other relationships. What young, scared, pregnant mothers fear they will lose by choosing life is usually far less than they imagine. But whatever the cost, when faced with making a sacrifice or sacrificing another, the Lord clearly tells us the right road.

27 de Septiembre

El evangelio de hoy nos habla de una de las razones fundamentales por la que llamamos a la gente a gran sacrificios para proteger y preservar la vida, ya sea de los no nacidos, los enfermos terminales y discapacitados, o cualquier otra persona. El tomar directamente la vida de otra persona inocente es cometer el tipo de ofensa a Dios que el Señor nos manda a evitar a toda costa. En el caso del aborto, tal vez no sea la mano o el ojo que conduce al pecado, sino más bien uno de los amigos u otras relaciones. Lo que las jóvenes madres embarazadas asustadas temen perder por la elección de la vida, suele ser mucho menos de lo que se imaginan. Pero cualquiera que sea el costo, cuando se enfrentan a hacer un sacrificio o sacrificar a otra persona, el Señor nos dice claramente cual es el camino correcto.

Respect Life Sunday - Celebrate Respect Life Sunday with Catholics across the United States on Sunday, October 4. Educational information about this year's theme, "Every Life Is Worth Living," is available at www.usccb.org/respectlife.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE – St. Jude parishioners are being asked to participate once again in the 40 DAYS FOR LIFE. This prayer effort to help end abortion will begin on September 23rd at Planned Parenthood. We will pray silently at the Central Street Planned Parenthood building. There will be sign-up sheets at weekend Masses during the month of September. Your support is needed to help mothers CHOOSE LIFE.

ST. JUDE CELEBRATES ITS FIRST DECADE

Our Parish was dedicated in 2006 and next year will celebrate its TENTH ANNIVERSARY. Plans are to honor this milestone with prayers and pride for the accomplishments of the past ten years.

The 12th Annual Gala is one event that will commemorate this anniversary. Plan to join your parishioners and friends for this occasion on Friday, February 5, 2016 at the ballroom of Michael's On East. In addition to a gourmet dinner and special program, silent and live auctions will offer an assortment of gifts for bidding.

The Committee is asking for a donation of a Condo or Home or Timeshare to add to the Live Auction. If you are able to consider this contribution for a week long stay, your cooperation would be greatly appreciated. Please contact Anna at 941-342-9688 to discuss this arrangement.

And mark your calendar for 2/5/2016 for an exceptional St. Jude Church Celebration!

SAN JUDAS CELEBRA SU PRIMERA DÉCADA

Nuestra parroquia fue dedicada en el 2006 y el próximo año celebrará su DÉCIMO ANIVERSARIO. Los planes son para honrar este hito con oraciones y el orgullo de los logros de los últimos diez años.

La 12^a Gala Anual es un evento que va a conmemorar este aniversario. Haga planes de unirse a sus feligreses y amigos para esta ocasión el viernes, 5 de febrero del 2016 en el salón de baile de Michael on East. Además de una cena gourmet y el programa especial, las subastas silenciosas y en vivo ofrecerán un surtido de regalos para hacer una oferta.

El Comité pide una donación de un condominio, casa o unidad de tiempo compartido para agregar a la subasta en vivo. Si usted es capaz de considerar esta contribución para una estancia de una semana, su colaboración sería muy apreciada. Por favor, póngase en contacto con Anna al 941-342-9688 para discutir este acuerdo. Y marque su calendario para 02/05/2016 para una ¡excepcional Celebración con la Iglesia San Judas!

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

October 2015

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

For many years, the Catholic Church has been at the forefront in defending the sanctity of life from conception to natural death. This year's national Respect Life theme, inspired by the words of Venerable Fulton J. Sheen, is "Every Life is Worth Living." It is our responsibility to do all we can to promote the belief that every life, in all its stages, regardless of age or condition, is truly worth living.

Each year on Respect Life Sunday, the first weekend in October, parishes throughout the Diocese of Venice conduct a special second collection to augment the life-affirming work of the Diocesan Respect Life Office. The funds remain in the Diocese of Venice and facilitate our witness as a faith community in southwest Florida.

Recent news, including videos that expose Planned Parenthood's devaluing of human life, remind us of the importance of defending life in our society. Please continue to pray for a greater appreciation of the sacredness of all human life and be as generous as you can in this annual collection. May God bless you with a deep appreciation for the gift of life and the courage to defend the sanctity of life. Let us remain united in prayer and action.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
