Second Sunday of Lent

March 1st, 2015

Genesis 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18; Rom 8:31b-34; Mk 9:2-10
Psalm 116

Dear Families:

This Sunday's teaching focuses on the Transfiguration of the Lord. We should try to understand it the way Jesus intended it for the Apostles on Mount Tabor.

It had been a few days since Jesus spoke to His apostles openly of his passion and death. For them, it was unimaginable that Jesus, the Messiah, had to suffer and die. They expected, as did their contemporaries, an earthly Messiah - a triumphant warrior.

In the Transfiguration, Jesus shows his three Apostles - Peter, James and John - the glory that belongs to the Son of God. He has spoken of His death, and now He showed them His glory. These phenomena are two sides of the same act of salvation. By participating in both sides (faces), we shall be saved. In the manifestation on Mount Tabor, Jesus shows, in advance, the glory which was to follow the apparent failure of the cross.

Peter, on behalf of the other two apostles present, said: "It is good that we are here!", but he missed Jesus' intention, expressed in a second teaching at the miraculous event. That is, that Moses and Elijah appeared in glory, next to Jesus, speaking with Him regarding "...His departure, that was to be fulfilled in Jerusalem..." - which is to say, His passion and death.

The passion was to end in glory, but this glory had to be preceded by the passion. As Jesus would say after His resurrection: "...the Messiah would suffer and rise from the dead..." (Luke 24:46). Inasmuch as the Disciple should imitate the Teacher, we can understand why Paul and Barnabas, upon returning from their first apostolic mission, summarized their preaching saying: "It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the kingdom of God." (Acts 14:22).

The Lord does well in offsetting our fear of suffering with glimpse of the future reward that awaits the faithful.

Being a Christian is to take advantage of the double lesson of Mount Tabor: to "kiss the medal on both sides" (passion and glory) - to temporarily embrace the cross and live with the certain hope of eternal happiness.

Reflections of Pope Francis

"There is no sin that God cannot pardon. All we need to do is ask for forgiveness."

"God is indeed waiting for you; He asks of you only the courage to go to Him."

Segundo Domingo de Cuarenta

1ro de Marzo del 2015

Gn 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18; Rom 8:31b-34; Marcos 9:2-10
Salmo 116 [115]

Queridas Familias:

La catequesis de este domingo, centrada en el relato de la Transfiguración del Señor, debe producir en nosotros lo que Jesús intentó proporcionar a los apóstoles en el monte Tabor.

Hacia pocos días que Jesús abiertamente habló a sus apóstoles de su pasión y muerte. A ellos no les cabía en la cabeza que Jesús, el Mesías, tuviera que padecer. Esperaban, como todos sus contemporáneos, un Mesías terreno, guerrero y triunfador.

En la Transfiguración, Jesús muestra a sus tres apóstoles Pedro, Santiago y Juan la gloria que a él le corresponde como Hijo de Dios. Les ha hablado de su muerte y ahora les muestra su gloria. Son las dos caras del mismo acto salvador. Participando de ambas caras seremos salvos. En este acto del monte Tabor, Jesús muestra anticipadamente la gloria que había de seguir al aparente fracaso de la cruz.

Pedro en nombre de los otros dos presentes decía: "Que bueno es estar aquí", pero pasaba por alto la segunda enseñanza intentada por Jesús en aquel hecho prodigioso. Y es que Moisés y Elías aparecían en gloria, al lado de Jesús, hablando con él "de su partida que iba a cumplirse en Jerusalén", es decir, de su pasión y su muerte.

La pasión iba a terminar en gloria; pero ésta tenía que ser precedida por la pasión. Como les dirá Jesús después de resucitado: "Era necesario que el Cristo padeciera y así entrara en su gloria" (Lc 24:46). Y si el discípulo se debe parecer al maestro, se comprende que Pablo y Bernabé, a la vuelta de su primer viaje apostólico, resuman su predicación diciendo: "Es necesario que pasemos por muchas tribulaciones para entrar en el reino de los cielos" (Hechos 14:22).

Hace bien el Señor en compensar nuestro miedo a los padecimientos con el vislumbre anticipado del objeto futuro de nuestra esperanza.

Ser cristiano es aprovechar la doble lección del monte Tabor: besar la medalla (pasión y gloria) por ambas caras: abrazarse temporalmente con la cruz y vivir con la esperanza cierta de la felicidad eterna.

Reflexiones del Papa Francisco

"No hay pecado que Dios no pueda perdonar. Todo lo que necesitamos hacer es pedir perdón."

"En verdad Dios te espera; Él te pide sólo el valor de ir a Él."

Redemption is not only the death of Christ, nor is it only His resurrection; it is both. This is why Christians must embrace them both at once.

For this reason the Church proposes that, in this season of Lent, we go forth toward Holy Week, embracing the cross, in anticipation of the joy of Easter. We can look to the future: The glory with Jesus.

May God bless you,

Father Celestino, Pastor

Mensaje de la página 4

La redención no es sólo la muerte de Cristo, ni sólo su resurrección, sino ambas a la vez; por eso el cristiano tiene que abrazarse con ambas a la vez.

Por eso la Iglesia nos propone este tiempo de Cuaresma: para llegar a la Semana Santa y abrazarnos a la cruz y disfrutar del gozo de la noche de Pascua. Y mirar hacia el futuro: la gloria junto a Jesús.

Que Dios los bendiga,

Padre Celestino, Párroco

March 1st

The practice of "giving something up for Lent" means we say No to ourselves and Yes to God and others. This reverses the pattern of sin.

In our culture, one of the most violent ways of saying No to God and others is abortion. Three thousand times every day in our nation, people say No to a child so that they may say Yes to their fears or their plans.

This Lent, as we practice self-denial, let's offer our sacrifices for these children. May we say Yes to God and Yes to the unborn.

1ro de Marzo

La práctica de "renunciar a algo para la Cuaresma" significa que decimos No a nosotros mismos y Sí a Dios y a los demás. Esto invierte el patrón del pecado.

En nuestra cultura, una de las formas más violentas de decir No a Dios y a los demás es el aborto. Tres mil veces cada día en nuestra nación, la gente le dice No a un niño para poder decir Sí a sus temores o sus planes.

Esta Cuaresma, cuando practiquemos la abnegación, vamos a ofrecer nuestros sacrificios por estos niños. Que Podamos decir Sí a Dios y Sí a los no nacidos.

Remember Our Dead

Into your hands, O Lord, we commend the souls of our recently departed. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Recuerden a Nuestros Difuntos

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL ST. JUDE GALA FUNDRAISER

The 11th Annual Gala to benefit St. Jude Parish owes its success to the serious hard work of its volunteers. Most organizations have their paid staff to handle the many details of a large event such as this. We are twenty-strong volunteers creating a program, designing invitations, securing raffle and auction prizes, signing up generous sponsors, producing financial sheets, sending out press releases, and donating time, money and energy over several months.

Fr. Celestino thanked us at the Gala and we thank him for the opportunity to be part of the mission of St. Jude: to help others in need. Funds are needed for all the programs that make our Church a prime example of charity. I am proud, as Chairman all these years, of the committee members and our accomplishments. Thank you all, and, thanks to the parishioners and community at-large that support us.

Kathy Schersten,
Gala Event Chairman

OTRA EXITOSA GALA DE SAN JUDAS PARA RECAUDAR FONDOS

La 11^{va.} Gala Anual a beneficio de la Parroquia de San Judas, debe su éxito al gran trabajo de sus voluntarios. La mayoría de las organizaciones cuentan con un personal pagado para manejar los muchos detalles de un gran evento como este. Somos veinte voluntarios creando el programa y el diseño de las invitaciones, asegurando los premios de la rifa y subasta, enrolando la firma de generosos patrocinadores, produciendo los informes financieros, enviando comunicados de prensa, y donando de nuestro tiempo, dinero y energía a lo largo de varios meses.

El Padre Celestino nos dio las gracias en la Gala y le damos las gracias por la oportunidad de ser parte de la misión de San Judas: de ayudar a los necesitados. Se necesitan fondos para todos los programas que hacen de nuestra Iglesia un excelente ejemplo de la caridad. Como la Presidenta por todos estos años, me siento orgullosa de los miembros del comité y de nuestros logros. Gracias a todos, y gracias a los feligreses y comunidad en general que nos apoyan.

Kathy Schersten, Presidenta del Evento de la Gala
